Amendment and extension of syndicated loan:

- Maximum maturity extended to December 2026
- Improved financing terms
- CSR¹ performance integrated into margin computation

Legrand announced today that it has signed a new agreement amending and extending the syndicated multi-currency loan initially signed in October 2011, then modified in July 2014, with all banks previously party to this contract.

Under this agreement, the maximum maturity of this €900 million revolving credit line is extended by five and a half years – i.e., until December 2026 – at improved financial conditions compared with July 2014.

Legrand is confirming its CSR¹ commitment by introducing a non-financial performance criterion for the margin computation, which will now be adjusted each year to reflect the Group’s CSR¹ roadmap achievement rate.
